Tindle Consulting - Data Security Policy

All employees must use multi-factor authentication for accessing internal systems.

Sensitive data must be encrypted in transit and at rest.

Personal devices must not be used to store company data.

Regular security training is mandatory, and security incidents must be reported immediately to IT.